1. Disposal of cases:

In the district, only three (03) old cases are pending. The Worthy Chair directed the Judicial officers concerned to expedite disposal of these case. The Worthy Senior Civil Judge, Chitral stated that one old case is pending in his court, but in that case appeal/revision has been filed against an interlocutory order. The Worthy Chair also directed all the participants to focus on timely disposal of cases. All the participants ensured that they are committed to decide the cases within time, but some members of the bar are busy in their election campaign as candidate or political party’s office bearers, therefore, they are seeking adjournments in the cases.

2. Performance of the returning officers:

Some discussion was also about duties of the returning officers of the upcoming General Election, 2018. The Worthy Chair appreciated and showed satisfaction on smooth running of the election duties by the returning officers, but at the same reiterated that the said duties be performed according to the guidelines of the Election Commission of Pakistan, so that free and fair election is conducted. The Worthy Chair also directed the returning officers to make efforts that the judicial work is performed side by side the election duty. The returning officers assured that they are performing both these duties.

3. Security:

Security of courts at sub-division Drosh was discussed. The Worthy Chair directed the Civil Judge/I.Q-I, Drosh to make arrangements with the local police for tightening the security of courts at Drosh.

4. Miscellaneous:

The Worthy Addl: District and Sessions Judge, Chitral pointed out that there is problem of water facility at sub-division Booni. The Worthy Chair proposed that for obtaining feasibility for provision of the said facility, the department concerned will be approached.
The Worthy Chair required all the participants to strictly observe court timings.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks to and from the Worthy Chair.
